Date of decision: 19/08/1999

ORAL JUDGEMENT

Rule. Mr. Mankad, learned A.G.P. waives service of rule on behalf of respondents Nos.1 and 2 and Mr. Pandit waives service of rule on behalf of respondent No.3.

The petitioner Rajkot Homoeopathy Medical College was not included in the list of the Colleges for centralised admission scheme as was conveyed to the Director (ISM & Homeopathy), State of Gujarat by the Central Council of Homoeopathy. Accordingly the Government of Gujarat sent communication dt.28.6.99 to the concerned Director. Now in response to the notice issued to the Central Council of Homoeopathy, it is submitted by Mr. Pandit that the petitioner - College has also been recognised and the same may also be included in the list of the Colleges for centralised admission scheme. Central Council of Homoeopathy had issued the letter to this effect on 15.7.99, which was the last date for receipt of the applications for admission to the Colleges under the centralised admission scheme. In the facts and circumstances of this case and looking to the future career of the students, who are desirous of seeking admission and to make admission open for more number of students, it appears desirable and appropriate to order that the petitioner Rajkot Homoeopathy Medical College may also be treated as included in the Colleges for the purpose of centralised admission scheme to the course of B.H.M.S. On the request of Mr.B.Y.Mankad, learned A.G.P., Central Council of Homoeopathy is directed to take care and caution to decide the question of recognition well in time so that no complications arise in future. The concerned authorities shall take steps accordingly by issuing appropriate advertisement in the news papers so as to invite applications under the centralised admission scheme for the seats available in Rajkot Homoeopathy Medical College also. This Special Civil Application is accordingly allowed and the Rule is made absolute, in the terms as aforesaid. No order as to costs. Direct service is permitted.
